

Stonewall Inn Presents Sister Mary at the Venice Jubilee Center*

Monday, July 19, 2016, 6:30 – 8:30 PM

A "SOBB IN GOOD FOR THE SOIL" MUSIC EVENT:

Join us for music, song and dance, led by Sister Mary from North Carolina!

Mary James, originally from NYC, sang professionally with Right for Young, We Three and her hit "Find Your Love" can be found on YouTube. It was then Sister Mary began the NYC Heavenly Voice Choir, bringing vocal training, love, Spirit, and soul from to her inner city street group.

Relocating to North Carolina to faith raising her own family, Mary earned her PhD from producing magna cum laude with a Fine Arts & Professional Theater degree from A&T State University, nationally ranked by Black Broadway as one of the nation's top theater programs.

Sister Mary spent nine years managing the Carolina Theaters, while writing and producing her own musicals, plays and holiday carols. Her career chair ministry evolved into the NC Heavenly Voice Performing Arts group and her current play is "Home - Heaven or Hell" Sister Mary also ministers with prison inmates and women's shelters. She has been a keynote speaker for Women's Symposia, including the 2017 Women's Revival - "Women of God, Working in Their Names", held in Tennessee. We are honored to welcome her to Venice for a night of her art and song, including gospel, hymns, street songs and children-friendly songs.

Mary James's autobiography, "All About Mary's Struggle Like Me", will be available in both print and ebook this fall, 2016. It details her lifelong struggle with abuse, love, addiction, loss, prejudice, faith, life, death and her purpose going forward. Join in the celebration of life!
